do their job properly. I was advised to go talk to Captain Watson about the situation. I left work that morning and went to the office and waited. I requested a copy of the report of the call about the domestic that happened at my home. My friend, Wendy Parmelee, sat with me at the office. She also filed a report about how long I lived at the above address and witnesses that Michelle and I lived as a domestic partnership. So Captain Watson came out and started yelling at me about the situation of me coming to him Irrelevant to this case. He stated on numerous occasions that he had other things to deal with than this. When he was talking to me, he had the report and the paper that I signed and stated to me "Did you sign this? Then why are you here?" I stated that it was a domestic situation and he asked how when she was married. I said that the marriage is fake. She stated that I perform the ceremony. She so you performed a felony. I stated no, that there was no papers signed, I said a few words and they jumped into the river.
